

Cervical spine

Operations on the cervical spine – to treat both traumatic and degenerative changes – are one of the areas of specialization of the department. All of the common surgical procedures performed from the front (ventral) or from the back (dorsal), as well as numerous special methods, are offered at Sana Kliniken Duisburg.

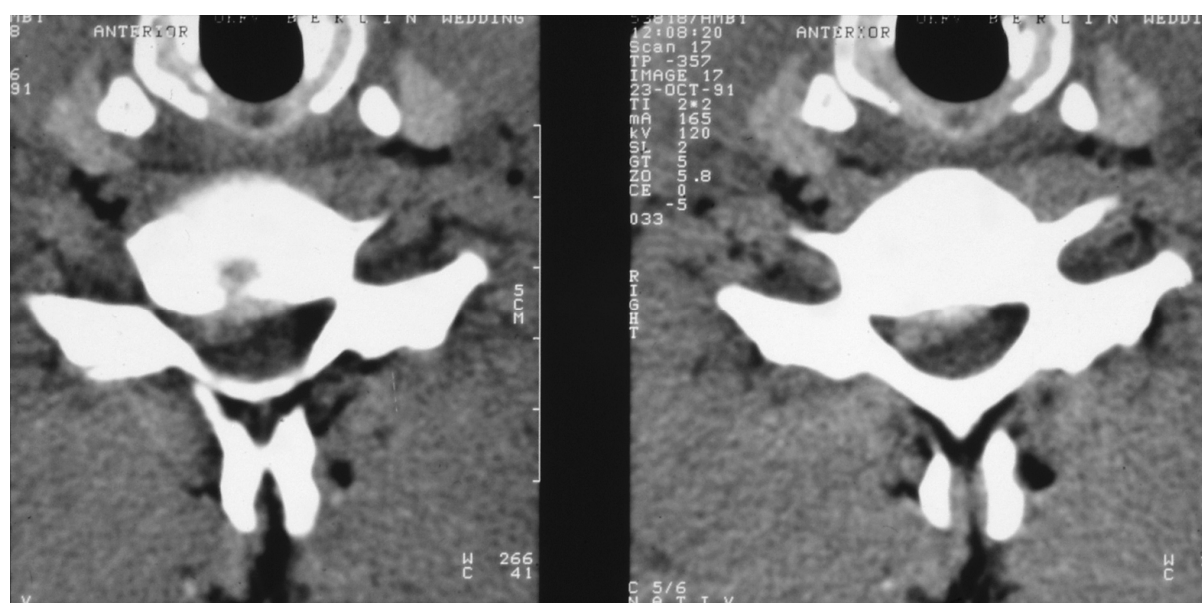

Fig.: Severe cervical disk herniation